If at all possible the tournament director should consult with the other players before approving a request to reschedule a game.

To be able to serve as a qualifier, the tournament must be held in Oregon, have at least four rounds with a regular-only time control, and require OCF membership from Oregon residents in the qualifying section.

If there are more than 8 players in the Challengers pool, they shall be ranked according to rating. For ranking purposes, those players who have played fewer than 15 US Chess regular (slow) rated games during the calendar year prior to the year of the Challengers will have their rating adjusted downward by 10 points for each game less than 15 played. Any games played at ½ K will count as ½ game towards the aforementioned 15 games. Games played in the previous Challengers shall not count toward the aforementioned 15 games.

- b. If there are fewer than 8 players in the Challengers pool, additional players will be invited based on rating from the list of active Oregon players. For ranking purposes, those players who have played fewer than 15 US Chess regular (slow) rated games during the calendar year prior to the year of the Challengers will have their rating adjusted downward by 10 points for each game less than 15 played. However, an Oregon resident who shows another state on US Chess records may notify the President or the tournament coordinator that he or she meets the residency requirements and wishes to be considered for an invitation. It is the player's responsibility to ensure that the OCF Board has correct contact information in order to be able to receive an invitation.

The tournament coordinator will only extend invitations to active players, defined as players who either:

- a. have played at least one US Chess-rated game anywhere during the calendar year prior to the year of the Oregon Closed;

The six highest established rated players that accept the invitation, based on the current US Chess regular rating supplement when the invitations are sent out, qualify for the Championship section and the next six highest established rated players that accept the invitation qualify for the Challengers section.

2. All players must be Oregon residents based on the same criteria used for the Oregon Closed and be under the age of 19 through the dates of the tournament. It is the players' responsibility to ensure that the OCF board has correct contact information for them in order to be able to receive an invitation. Only players who are listed as Oregon residents in US Chess or who are known to be Oregon residents will be eligible to receive an invitation, with the exception that an Oregon resident who shows another state on US Chess records may notify the Tournament Coordinator or President prior to when the invitations are sent out that they meet the residency requirements and wish to be considered for an invitation.

3. At the discretion of the tournament director, a $25 entry fee may be charged, refunded to the player upon completion of all games without a forfeit loss.

4. Both sections are US Chess rated and may also be rated in other systems, such as the NWSRS and FIDE, based on the decision of the organizer(s). All players must have current US Chess and OCF memberships through the dates of the tournament.

5. The time control and schedule will be determined by the organizer(s).

The winner(s) of the Championship section receive(s) the title of Oregon Junior Champion for the current year and the winner(s) of the Challengers section receive(s) the title of Oregon Junior Challengers Winner for the current year. If all the tied players do not wish to be co-champions, the title can be determined by a playoff, the format of which must be agreed upon by all tied players and the OCF Board. The OCF Board will have the right of veto on financial grounds. If the tie-breaking event results in a tie or the players and OCF Board cannot agree on the playoff format, then the tied players will be declared co-champions.

7. Reasonable expenses such as site rental, director's fees, rating fees, and postage will be paid by the sponsor(s).
